Rain

Between 12:00 Thu 26 Oct 2023 and
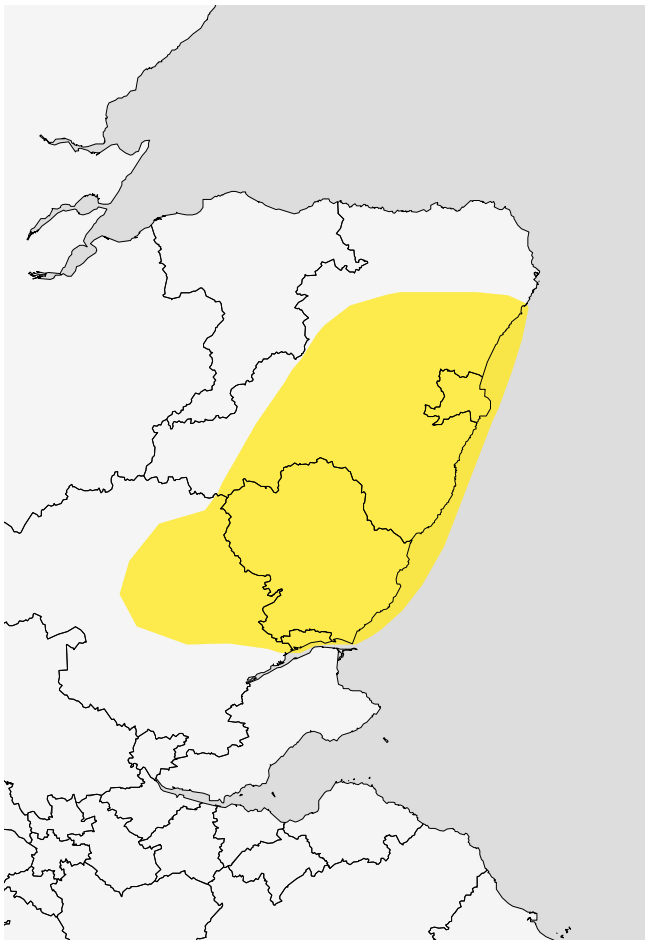
12:00 Sun 29 Oct 2023



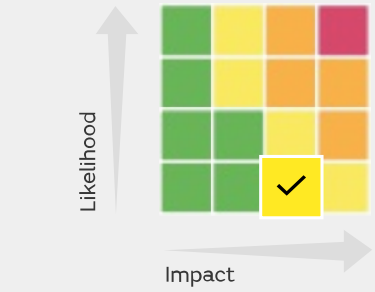
Persistent and occasionally heavy rain may lead to some flooding and transport disruption.

What to expect

- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures, and may lead to delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Where flooding occurs, there is a chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a small chance of fast-flowing or deep floodwater

Further details

Further rain is expected across eastern Scotland between late Thursday and early Sunday, the rain heavy at in places, although possibly easing off for a time later Friday or early Saturday. Accumulations over this period will be widely around 30 to 40 mm near the coast, with 50 to 100 mm likely to fall over higher ground where there is a possibility of up to around 100-150 mm in a few locations. Rain will be less heavy than last week but falling on to already saturated ground is likely may lead to further flooding in places.



✓ Very low likelihood of medium impacts
